

Te Anau & Doubtful Sound Pre TRENZ Famil

3rd – 5th May 2025

Destination Information

Home to the majestic Piopiotahi Milford Sound and Patea Doubtful Sound, Fiordland is a destination that beckons travellers to journey south and immerse themselves in New Zealand's most pristine wilderness.

Te Anau is a charming village with a big heart, where warm hospitality and breathtaking natural beauty come together to create an unforgettable Southern experience.

Discover the stunning Waiiau River, which elegantly links Lake Te Anau and Lake Manapouri, before embarking on a hike along the Kepler Track, renowned for its lush rainforest. Don't miss the chance to experience Ata Whenua, a captivating film that beautifully showcases the region's dramatic landscapes, followed by sampling some of the local fare.

With a day trip to either Milford or Doubtful Sound, you can explore the UNESCO World Heritage Park in depth and immerse yourself in its stunning landscapes, majestic fjords, and diverse wildlife.

In the winter months, Fiordland transforms into a stargazer's paradise. Its remote location guarantees minimal light pollution, making it one of the world's premier spots for witnessing the awe-inspiring night sky.
